

To whom it may concern,

I do not believe that the New Jersey consumer protection Do NOT Call laws should be weakened. I do not want telemarketers calling me. What gives them the right to call when I have already made it known that I do not want calls. Where are my rights as a consumer?

Thank you

MS